THE GOALS OF THE DEPARTMENT OF FINE ARTS

1. Foster the skills of critical thinking, writing, research, and oral communication among our students.
2. Serve the University and the community through the provision of quality general education courses that prepare students for their adult roles as citizens and carriers of culture.
3. Offer innovative programs and quality teaching within the classroom and through distance education.
4. Facilitate the formation of a group of scholars consisting of faculty and students that meets outside of course/credit settings.
5. Encourage faculty scholarship.
6. Provide traditional and nontraditional students quality associate and baccalaureate degrees.
7. Foster the values of scholarship, creativity, appreciation of diversity, and community service among our faculty, staff, and students.
8. Recruit and retain high quality students, both traditional and nontraditional.

SCHOOL OF LIBERAL ARTS

Dr. Kenneth Hicks, Department Head

Dr. Paul Hatley	Dr. Gary Rutledge	Dr. Carolyn Taylor
Dr. Steve Housel	Mr. Phil Sample	Dr. Quentin Taylor
Dr. Jane Johansson	Dr. David Tait

THE GOALS OF THE DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY AND POLITICAL SCIENCE

1. Provide traditional and nontraditional students quality associate and baccalaureate degrees;
2. Serve the University and the community through the provision of quality general education courses;
3. Offer innovative and quality teaching both within the classroom and through distance education;
4. Foster the skills of critical thinking, writing, research, and oral communication among our students;
5. Foster values of scholarship, creativity, appreciation of diversity, and community service among our faculty, staff, and students; and
6. Attract and retain high quality traditional and nontraditional students.

Purpose. The department provides faculty to support discipline-specific degree programs as well as the University's general education program. Using the latest technology, the faculty is able to offer students in northeastern Oklahoma and the surrounding region access to many academic opportunities. Appreciating that learning takes place outside the classroom as well, the department actively pursues service-learning opportunities for the academic enrichment of both faculty and student.

BACHELOR OF ARTS

PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION (123)

A bachelor degree in public administration provides students interested in working in state and local government with the knowledge and skills necessary to plan, implement, and evaluate the effectiveness of public programs. Graduates of RSU's BA-PA will be able to seek employment in state and local government, nonprofit organizations, and private sector businesses that regularly seek government contracts. Students will learn how to think critically and analytically about the purposes of public policy and how public policies contribute to the greater good of their communities.

LEGAL ASSISTING (116)

Legal Assistants are professionals who assist attorneys in the delivery of legal services. To be a successful legal assistant, a person must possess not only a common core of legal knowledge, but also vital critical thinking, organizational, communication, and interpersonal skills. The Associate in Arts in Legal Assisting is designed to give students the substantive knowledge and practical skills necessary to enter the legal work force as a legal assistant, as well as provide students with a general education necessary to fully participate in increasingly complex social settings.
