

Rogers State University
Emergency Medical Services Program

EMS 1108 Basic Emergency Medical Technology

A study of the role of the EMT, including CPR, triage, patient assessment, treatment of shock, hemorrhage, unconscious patient, fractures, traumatic injuries, medical emergencies, and light extrication. Field and hospital practicums are integral parts of the course.

Clinical assignments include:

- Emergency Department 16 hours
- EMS Service 24 hours

2010-2011 Estimated Fees for EMS 1108 Basic EMT

EMS 1108 Basic EMT - Tuition	$1,132.40
Books	$237.85
Uniforms	$100.00
Fees	$238.00
*HLSC 1051 Bloodborne Pathogens - Tuition	$141.55
Immunizations	$100.00
TOTAL	$1,949.80

*HLSC 1051 Bloodborne Pathogens is a required co-requisite for the Basic EMT course.