RSU Institutional Fact Book

The information contained in the Institutional Fact Book is collected from several institutional offices. The enrollment and faculty data are based on the preliminary data stored after the last day to drop courses with no grade record which is traditionally the end of the second week of classes. The tuition information is provided by the Office of the Bursar and the fiscal data is provided by the Budgeting and Accounting Department.

Please note that, to the extent possible, the data presented on the following pages represent snapshots taken at the same time of the academic year. In some instances, however, variations in reporting cycles have limited our ability to do so. For this reason, the reader who attempts to cross-reference certain data tables may find discrepancies which may not be due to inaccuracies in the data.

Additional copies may be printed or downloaded from the RSU Accountability and Academics website.

RSU Fast Facts

- RSU is a dynamic, progressive university widely recognized for its high-quality academic programs, distance learning options, and high-technology learning environment.
- Rogers State University is one of the fastest-growing universities in Oklahoma. In fall 2011, over 4,600 students enrolled at RSU. Since RSU was accredited as a four-year university in 2000, enrollment has grown by over 107 percent (based on student credit hours).
- RSU is the only public four-year, residential university in the Tulsa area and is located near several major Tulsa high-technology employers and the Tulsa International Airport.
- RSU was granted continued accreditation from the Higher Learning Commission of the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools without further required evaluation for 10 years – a rarity in higher education and a major accomplishment achieved by few universities.
- RSU has implemented a wide variety of new baccalaureate degree programs in high-demand areas such as business administration, communications, and nursing, as well as unique disciplines such as environmental studies, game development, justice administration, sport management, military history and social entrepreneurship*. RSU is one of a few universities in Oklahoma to offer both baccalaureate and associate degrees.
- In August 2011, RSU opened University Village B doubling the number of students living on campus. The 92,991-square-foot complex, located just west of Soldier Field on Colonel Horne Drive, features a clubhouse and each floor has a commons area, recreation area and meeting rooms. A second phase of apartments, with capacity for another 250 students, could begin in the next few years, depending upon demand and available financing.
- RSU recently completed renovation of Baird Hall doubling its size to 57,000 square feet. Baird Hall now contains classrooms equipped with Smart Boards, a performance studio and an amphitheater-style outdoor classroom. Baird Hall always provided a location for the university's art gallery, and when the building reopened, it boasted a new gallery for RSU students and faculty artists, as well as visiting artists, to exhibit their work. Those entering the main plaza entrance on the southeast corner of the building will be greeted by a six-foot-tall statue of Will Rogers, the area's iconic folk hero. It is also the headquarters for four academic departments including the Department of Communications, Department of English and Humanities, Department of Fine Arts and Department of History and Political Science. The RSU/Cameron Education Program and Honors Program are also located in Baird Hall.

Pending approval by the Oklahoma State Regents for Higher Education.*

- RSU has transformed its main campus in Claremore through several new building and renovation projects, including the Stratton Taylor Library, on-campus student living community, several athletic fields and the Innovation Center, a business incubator. All major historic buildings on the Claremore campus have been completed renovated. Preparatory Hall and Meyer Hall are listed on the National Register of Historic Places. RSU's beautiful main campus also features the Oklahoma Military Academy (OMA) museum, an OMA Killed in Action Memorial, an art gallery, Will Rogers Auditorium, two lakes, a 120-acre nature conservatory, amphitheater, and nature trails for the community.
- The Claremore campus is accentuated with some of the largest and most elaborate sculptures located on any university campus in Oklahoma, including sculptures of George Washington, Thomas Jefferson, and Abraham Lincoln.
- RSU is the only university in Oklahoma to operate a full-power public television station, reaching more than 1 million viewers across Oklahoma and surrounding states.
- RSU operates its own radio station, RSU Radio (KRSC) 91.3 FM, which can be heard in Claremore, Tulsa, and across northeast Oklahoma. RSU Radio is the only alternative college radio station on a campus in Oklahoma. Much of the programming is produced and hosted by RSU students.
- Five endowed faculty chairs have been established at RSU. The private gifts funding these faculty chairs have been matched dollar for dollar by the Oklahoma State Regents for Higher Education's Endowment Trust Fund. RSU's endowed faculty chairs are: the Kunz Endowed Chair in Communications, funded by Warner Brothers (WB) television; the Sarkeys Endowed Chair in Business Information Technology, funded by the Sarkeys Foundation; the John W. Norman Endowed Chair in Business Information Technology, funded by anonymous donors; the Oliver Dewey Mayor Endowed Chair, funded by the Oliver Dewey Mayor Foundation for an endowed faculty position at RSU's campus in Pryor; and an Endowed Chair in Nursing funded by the Board of Visitors.
- RSU is dedicated to providing programs and activities to foster student development outside the classroom. The Office of Student Affairs provides services to promote student development, diversity, campus activities, career services, and more. Nearly 30 student organizations are active on campus.
- The RSU Student Health Center is located in Downs Hall on the Claremore campus. The center provides health care for students, faculty, and staff for treating minor injuries and illnesses, as well as providing individual, group, and family counseling for students.
- RSU's Innovation Center is a 7,000-square-foot facility that houses a business incubator and provides office space for several economic development organizations. Established in 2002, the Innovation Center fosters regional economic development and addresses the educational needs of business and industry.

- RSU's emergency medical technology program is one of only two college-level paramedic programs in the state of Oklahoma and the only such program in northeast Oklahoma.
- RSU has a $2.2 million off-campus equestrian center that houses the Bit by Bit Therapeutic Horseback Riding Program and the RSU Rodeo Team. The Frank and Wanda Sanders Family Trust donated 23 acres of land for the facility, which is located just off U.S. Highway 169 five miles south of Oologah. Bit by Bit is a cooperative program between RSU and Oologah-Talala Public Schools to promote physical and mental health for disabled children and adults through horseback riding.
- The Oklahoma Military Academy Museum, located on the second floor of Meyer Hall on the RSU campus in Claremore, tells the story of the more than 10,000 cadets who attended the Oklahoma Military Academy (OMA) from 1919 to 1971. The museum, which is open to the public, features thousands of historical documents, photographs, military uniforms, and other memorabilia. The OMA, one of the predecessor institutions of RSU, was known throughout the U.S. as the "West Point of the Southwest." Distinguished graduates include Lt. Gen. William E. Potts, Admiral William J. Crowe, and Col. Edwin P. Ramsey.
- The OMA Killed in Action Memorial is a black granite pyramid etched with the names of more than 100 OMA cadets who died in service abroad. The Memorial, located on the north side of Meyer Hall, was dedicated in June 2011.
- A collection of 57 porcelain sculptures of birds in their natural habitat by Edward Marshall Boehm, one of the leading wildlife artists of the 20th Century, was donated to RSU by Bill and Betty Holman of Claremore. The collection can be viewed by the public at the Stratton Taylor Library.
