Institutional Fact Book

Rogers State University

The information contained in the Institutional Fact Book is collected from several institutional offices. The enrollment and faculty data are based on the preliminary data stored after the last day to drop courses with no grade record, which is traditionally the end of the second week of classes. The tuition information is provided by the Office of the Bursar and the fiscal data is provided by the Budgeting and Accounting Department.

Please note that, to the extent possible, the data presented on the following pages represent snapshots taken at the same time of the academic year. In some instances, however, variations in reporting cycles have limited our ability to do so. For this reason, the reader who attempts to cross-reference certain data tables may find discrepancies which may not be due to inaccuracies in the data.

Additional copies may be printed or downloaded from the RSU Accountability and Academics website (<http://www.rsu.edu/about/accountability-academics/>).

Quality Matters, a nationally recognized certification program that measures course effectiveness and ensures consistency among online programs, has chosen RSU's Social Systems and Problems online course to be a demonstration course for QM certification. This designation will create international exposure for RSU's online programs thousands of educators internationally.

Inaugural SHIELD Conference Showcases Academic Research. The inaugural conference for the Society for Higher Education Interdisciplinary Learning and Discovery (SHIELD) brought together Oklahoma college faculty and students to RSU in order to explore original academic research. The conference, spearheaded by RSU psychology professor Dr. Kevin Woller, attracted about 50 faculty and students from six Oklahoma colleges and universities during the event held March 30 at the Dr. Carolyn Taylor Center on the RSU Claremore campus. More than 30 presentations were scheduled throughout the day in a diverse array of topics that included psychology, communications, education, literature, film studies, ecology, history, ecology, nursing, Native American studies and more. SHIELD was established last year to provide Oklahoma faculty and students with opportunities to participate in a rigorous academic conference. By setting the conference within the state, it eliminated the costs associated with out-of-state travel borne by Oklahoma colleges that wish to participate in academic conferences.

Online Business Information Technology Program Ranked #23 Nationally. TheBestSchools.org ranked RSU's online Business Information Technology as 23rd in the nation and the highest among Oklahoma schools. Schools were selected based on the quality of the program, types of courses offered, the faculty, awards, rankings and reputation, including the reputation for effectively providing online degree programs.

RSU Student Participates in Research Day at the Capitol. RSU student Shana Butler presented her psychology research on "Perceived Mental Health Counselor Bias and LGBTQ Mental Health Service Utilization" as part of the annual Research Day held at the state capitol. A social sciences/psychology senior from Claremore, Butler represented RSU during the March 27 event, which is sponsored by Oklahoma NSF EPSCoR, the Oklahoma State Regents for Higher Education and the National Science Foundation. The event is designed to raise awareness of the outstanding research that is taking place at Oklahoma's colleges and universities. Butler was joined at the event by her research advisor Dr. Sonya E. Munsell, assistant professor in the Department of Psychology and Sociology at RSU. During the event, students from 17 Oklahoma colleges and universities presented poster displays about their original research and discussed details with members of the State Legislature and Capitol guests.

RSU Selected for GEAR UP Program. OSHRE has selected RSU and four other Oklahoma regional universities to participate in a six-year, federally funded GEAR UP initiative aimed at early student awareness and college readiness for students in 7th through 12th grade. Ten Oklahoma public schools were selected to be partnered with the Oklahoma universities for GEAR UP (Gaining Early Awareness and Readiness for Undergraduate Programs). RSU will work directly with Claremore and Skiatook public schools. The GEAR UP grant will pay salary, benefits and expenses for six years to fund a College Coach, who will office and be employed by RSU. RSU's College Coach can and will work with any student from any of the other eight schools state wide, but will have specific responsibility for Claremore and Skiatook.

RSU Pryor Tech Lab Opens. RSU, MidAmerica Industrial Park and Google celebrated the opening of the RSU Pryor Tech Lab that includes computer workstations, three-dimensional printers, and work spaces for building and testing drone technology. The June 21 ribbon cutting for the RSU Tech Lab marked the lab's first phase as part of RSU's ongoing partnership with MidAmerica Industrial Park and Google to help meet the education needs of business and industry in northeastern Oklahoma. The RSU Pryor Tech Lab supports existing university technology programs and activities and will support new programs focused on learners outside of traditional degree programs.

Journal Publishes Article by RSU Prof, Students. A national journal published research by RSU students and faculty examining psychological reactance among Native American populations. The spring 2017 edition of the Journal of Intercultural Disciplines featured the article written by RSU Professor Kevin Woller, former RSU faculty member Johnny Mark Kirk and RSU alumni Cori Bryson ('15 Community Counseling), Cathleen Burkhead ('15 Social Sciences-Psychology) and Catherine Eimer ('16 Community Counseling). The article, "Understanding Reactance as a Function of Ethnicity," was based upon original research done for their presentation at the 2015 meeting of the Southwestern Psychological Association while Bryson, Burkhead and Eimer were students.

RSU Plugs in to Esports. RSU launched its competitive video gaming, known as esports or electronic sports, as an organized university activity, making RSU the first university in Oklahoma to offer esports as an official activity. Esports are massively popular worldwide especially among high school and college-aged students. At the college level outside Oklahoma, schools have been organizing college teams to compete against other college teams and the general public within the virtual game environment. Some student organizations have been established at other Oklahoma schools, but RSU is the first college to offer esports as an official activity.

RSU, Google Partner for 6th Annual Aero Games Competition. More than 150 middle and high school students and their faculty sponsors will converge at Rogers State University to put their drone flying skills to the test at RSU's sixth annual Aero Games, powered by Google. The popular science, technology, engineering and math (STEM) competition will be held on Thursday, March 29 on the RSU Claremore campus. Eighteen teams have taken on the Aero Games challenge to build a flight-worthy drone and fly it through a complex obstacle course designed specifically for the event. Congressman Markwayne Mullin will speak at the event.

Cherokee Nation, RSU offering Cherokee Language Classes through New Online Platform. The Cherokee Nation and RSU are teaming up to connect more Cherokee Nation citizens to the Cherokee language through a new, online learning platform. RSU Works, a continuing education and enrichment program delivered via RSU Public TV, is linking students to the tribe's online language courses. This is the first time registration for the Cherokee Nation's free classes was been available through both the tribe's official website www.cherokee.org and through www.RSUworks.org.

The awards recognized High Impact Leaders and Leaders (HILL) among the student body with awards presented for each level of academic classification as well as for student workers. Awards also were presented to a recent alumnus who has demonstrated leadership and to community partners who support university initiatives that enhance student development.

Thousands Visit Vietnam Veterans Memorial Display at RSU. RSU hosted The Wall That Heals (a ¾-scale replica of the Vietnam Veterans Memorial and an accompanying mobile education center) on the RSU Claremore campus in early June in conjunction with the annual Oklahoma Military Academy alumni reunion. Organizers estimated that about 8,000 visitors came to campus as a part of the event, and the Vietnam Veterans Memorial Foundation staff said RSU's event was one of their best stops both in terms of organization and attendance. The event made national news, with alumni and friends across the U.S. commenting that the Claremore stop was prominently referenced on a Fox News national broadcast. During the event, RSU also hosted Medal of Honor recipient Melvin Morris who shared his story with attendees.

RSU Summer Camps Serve Community Needs. RSU has hosted junior high and high school students from across Oklahoma through a series of camps at its Claremore and Pryor campuses this month. The sixth annual Appreciating Real-World Technology (ART) Academy was a weeklong residential camp on the Claremore campus. The camp helps at-risk youth encounter a college environment via diverse learning experiences. The RSU Pryor campus was home to a series of three four-day camps emphasizing technology, aerospace and STEAM programs for area middle school students. The APP Camp had students develop their own phone apps, the AeroCamp had students building and flying their own drones, and the STEAM camp focused on activities highlighting science, technology, engineering, arts, and math for Mayes County students.

Phillips 66 Underwrites RSU's STEM CEO Summer Camp. Bartlesville area middle school students will have more opportunities to expand their knowledge of science and math this summer at RSU's summer STEM and Career Exploring Opportunities (CEO) Camp. Thanks to a grant from Phillips 66, RSU's STEM CEO Summer Camp initiative will provide a five-day camp filled with indoor and outdoor interactive activities designed to teach new STEM competencies and explore STEM career opportunities. RSU Bartlesville will collaborate with five middle schools making this unique experience available for 100 area students who will be starting 9th grade this fall.

Foundation of Excellence Transfer Project: RSU is engaged in a Foundation of Excellence Transfer project, a joint venture with Tulsa Community College, area higher education institutions and tech centers, and the Schusterman Foundation. The project seeks to enhance the complete transfer experience of area students and promote timely graduation. The John G. Gardner Institute's proposal on Foundations of Excellence Transfer was selected in a competitive request for proposal process. The Schusterman Foundation has facilitated project development and will provide a majority of project funding.

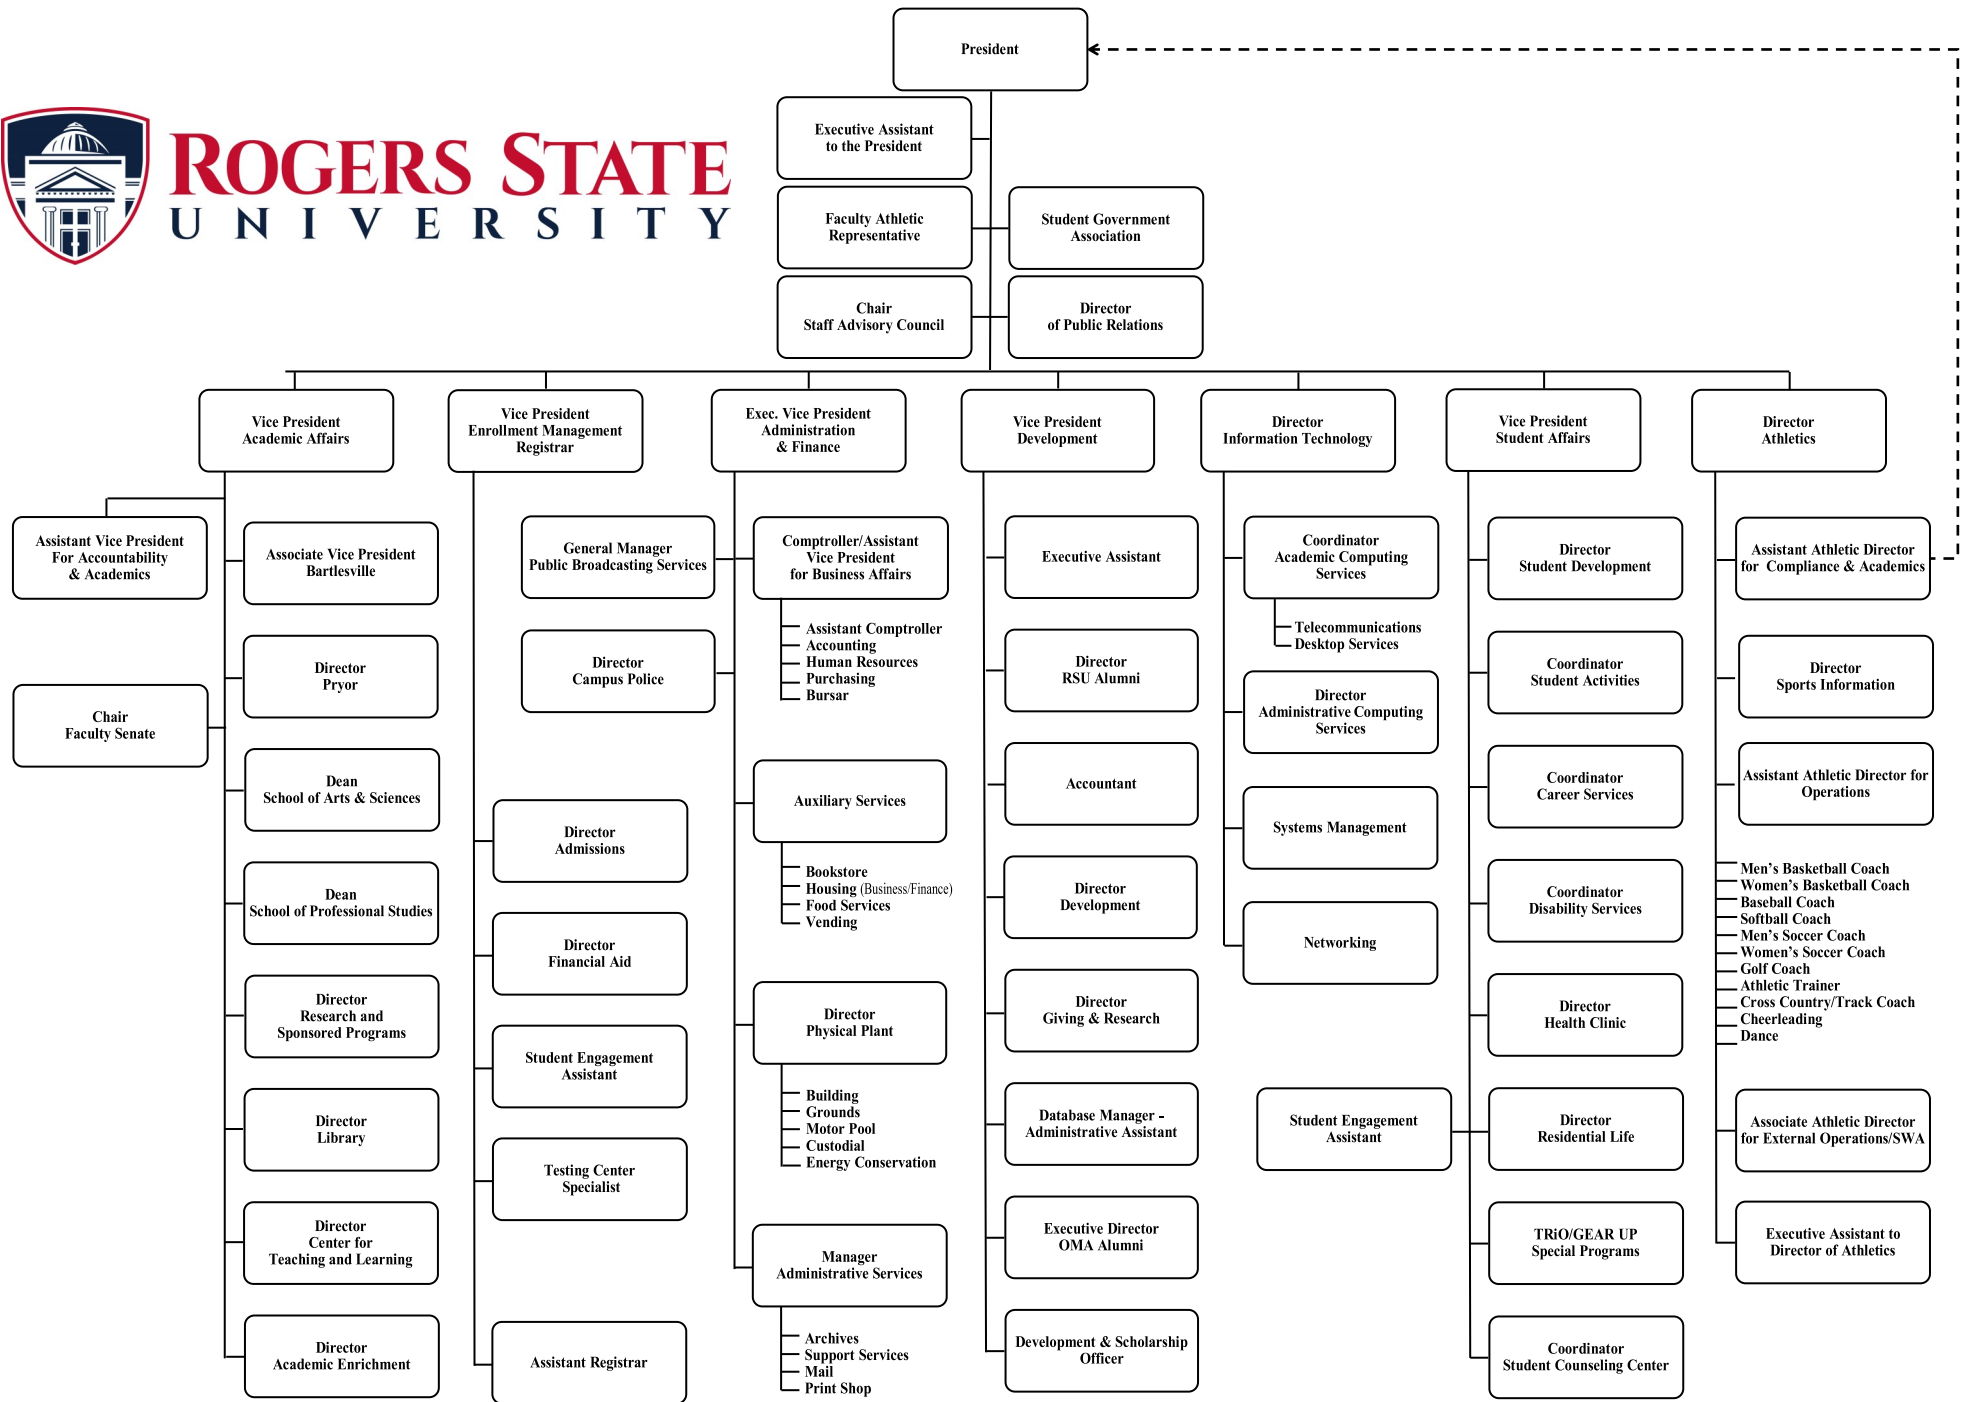

RSU Celebrated Partnership with Local Elementary School. RSU celebrated its partner in education, Claremont Elementary, during the Hillcat men's basketball game on Dec. 14. Hundreds of Claremont students were able to enjoy a meal, a free Hillcat spirit shirt, games, and giveaways during the game thanks to support from RSU Athletics, RSU Foundation, RCB Bank, and campus and community volunteers. The university annually arranges a holiday event for Claremont students. RSU's connection to the elementary school traces back more than 100 years when Eastern Oklahoma Preparatory School (today known as RSU) held its first classes at Claremont while Prep Hall was constructed.

Another Record Year for Scholarship Auction. Proceeds from the RSU Foundation's Saddle Up For Scholarships Auction and Dinner will net a record amount for unrestricted scholarships awarded to deserving RSU students during the 2017-18 academic year. This year's event, held April 29, raised more than $2000,000. Pelco Structural LLC generously served as this year's presenting sponsor.
