

Participation Agreement

By accepting the parts required to build a drone, provided by Rogers State University and Google, I am agreeing to participate in the Google AeroGames NXT, on October 25th, 2019. I understand that ALL parts are property of Rogers State University and, if at any point, it is determined that participation will not be possible (for any reason), I understand that I am responsible for returning ALL parts in the original condition. In addition, I will be responsible for the return of the $30 allowance provided by the Rogers State University Foundation. I also understand that I will be in contact with my Rogers State University student representative throughout duration of the build as well as the competition.
