CLAREMORE IS HOME

Claremore has a quality of life unique to itself. Located just outside the Tulsa metro, it is home to fun events, annual festivals and outdoor recreation including a lake, parks, and mountain bike trails. The downtown and university districts have an array of restaurants, coffee shops and boutiques. Northeast Oklahoma is vibrant and active with a sight to see in each direction. There are attractions for the whole family, world class entertainment and cultural experiences throughout the region.

On campus, students enjoy a true college experience. Every week there is something happening. Students can attend a variety of college athletics events, live entertainment, student events or relax by taking a break at the coffee shop or taking a walk through the beautiful nature reserve.

CLAREMORE IS HISTORIC

Named for a towering and enlightening chief, Claremore holds stories of the Osage, the Cherokee and the Cowboy alike. Great storytellers like Will Rogers and Lynn Riggs shared our humor with the world and made everyone fall in love with Oklahoma! We are a community of museums that commemorate and preserve our history. Discover the place we call “Home on the Hill.”
