

ROGERS STATE UNIVERSITY

ON THE HILL

TRADITION | INNOVATION | EXCELLENCE

ROGERS STATE, OU-TULSA COMBINE EFFORTS TO ADVANCE HIGHER ED OPPORTUNITIES IN TULSA

Beginning in August, upper-level classes of RSU degree programs in Business Administration and Public Affairs will be offered at the OU-Tulsa Schusterman Center. The offerings follow an agreement filed jointly by RSU President Dr. Larry Rice and OU-Tulsa President Dr. John Schumann with the Oklahoma State Regents for Higher Education. The agreement marks the first time in history that RSU classes will be available in Tulsa.

RSU ADDS 5 OPTIONS TO THE MBA@RSU

The Oklahoma State Regents for Higher Education approved five new degree options for Rogers State University's Master of Business Administration during their May meeting. The new degree options in the School of Professional Studies will include management, accounting, sport management, data analytics and healthcare management.

RSU PROFESSOR AWARDED $81,000 RESEARCH GRANT

Rogers State University professor Dr. Min Soe, along with colleagues from Massachusetts Intuition of Technology the College of William & Mary, was awarded a three-year research grant for more than $81,000 from the United States Department of Energy. Two RSU students will be selected to assist Dr. Soe. The research, "Unitary Qubit Lattice Algorithms for Plasma Physics, will make use of quantum information science to develop algorithms which solve Maxwell equations describing the propagation and scattering of electromagnetic waves in plasmas.

RSU PSYCHOLOGY SENIOR EMILY PARKER PARTICIPATES IN RESEARCH DAY

Rogers State University student Emily Parker presented her psychology research at the 26th annual Research Day at the Oklahoma State Capitol. The event is designed to raise awareness of the outstanding research taking place at Oklahoma's colleges and universities and was sponsored by Oklahoma Established Program to Stimulate Competitive Research, Oklahoma State Regents for Higher Education and the National Science Foundation. Parker's research is a part of her capstone studies. It explores the impact of religion on the attitudes toward LGBTQ+ issues and individuals.

RSU'S STRATTON TAYLOR LIBRARY DEBUTS CREATIVE SHOWCASE

Rogers State University Stratton Taylor Library displayed a unique variety of showcase exhibits from students, faculty, and staff. The inaugural creative showcase featured music, art, poetry, handcrafted artwork and more from diverse backgrounds and influences. The showcase included 23 displays and was sponsored by the Library Activities Committee and the Student Government Association's Diversity Equality and Inclusion Committee.