

2021-2022 Summer Financial Aid Application

Rogers State University provides students enrolled in at least 6 credits over the summer sessions with financial aid from the Pell Grant and Direct Student Loan programs. Students must have filed the 2021-2022 FAFSA form prior to May 1st of this year and be determined to be making satisfactory academic progress (SAP) at the end of the Spring 2022 semester. Please complete the following application form by May 6, 2022.

Student Name (please print) _____ Student ID# _____

Please answer the following questions:

1. Are you enrolled for the summer semester in at least 6 contributing credits at RSU? Yes No
2. Did you file a 2021-2022 FAFSA form by the May 1, 2022, deadline? Yes No
3. Were you a Pell recipient in the fall and/or spring semesters of this year? Yes No
4. Are you interested in borrowing a student loan for the summer semester? Yes No
5. Are you an _____ Undergraduate student or _____ Graduate student?
6. What are your total credits earned? _____
7. How many credits are you currently enrolled in for the Spring 2022 semester? _____

Please provide a list of the summer courses that you will be enrolled in for each session. Students must be taking a total of at least 6 contributing credits over the summer to be eligible for financial aid. Those courses can be taken in one or both summer sessions offered at RSU.

Please check each box that you understand the requirements for receiving summer financial aid.

- I understand that I must be enrolled in 6 contributing credits for summer to be aid eligible for the summer Pell or student loans.
- I understand that If I have not used 100% of my scheduled Pell grant during the fall and spring semesters that I may be eligible for Pell funds from my scheduled award before receiving the additional Pell grant for summer.
- For summer Pell or loans, financial aid will be disbursed after the student has started all 6 contributing credit hours whether the courses are offered all in the first or second sessions or a combination of sessions.
- If I withdraw from any courses in either session, I understand that my financial aid eligibility will be affected, or my financial aid can be cancelled.
- I understand that if my financial aid is adjusted that I am responsible for paying any outstanding tuition and fee balance that is owed to Rogers State University.

The information that I have provided on this form is true and correct.
