The results of this measure show that the Capstone students demonstrate excellence in understanding and presenting their work to a committee faculty and audience of their peers.

1.c. The artist statement serves as an appropriate measure because it forces the student to define and articulate the motivation and philosophy behind their work. Students who took this course were able to discuss their work fluently in written form.

Proposed Instructional or Assessment Changes

Learning outcomes assessment can generate actionable evidence of student performance that can be used to improve student success and institutional effectiveness. Knowledge of student strengths and weakness gained through assessment can inform faculty efforts to improve course instruction and program curriculum. Below discuss potential changes the department is considering which are aimed at improving student learning or the assessment process. Indicate which student learning outcome(s) will be affected and provide a rationale for each proposed change. These proposals will be revisited in next assessment cycle.
