Institutional Fact Book

Rogers State University

The information contained in the Institutional Fact Book is collected from several institutional offices. The enrollment and faculty data are based on the preliminary data stored after the last day to drop courses with no grade record, which is traditionally the end of the second week of classes. The tuition information is provided by the Office of the Bursar and the fiscal data is provided by the Budgeting and Accounting Department.

Please note that, to the extent possible, the data presented on the following pages represent snapshots taken at the same time of the academic year. In some instances, however, variations in reporting cycles have limited our ability to do so. For this reason, the reader who attempts to cross-reference certain data tables may find discrepancies which may not be due to inaccuracies in the data.

Additional copies may be printed or downloaded from the RSU Accountability and Academics website (<http://www.rsu.edu/about/accountability-academics/>).

U.S. News and World Report Ranks RSU as Best in Oklahoma for Regional Colleges, Top Public Schools. U.S. News and World Report has ranked Rogers State University as the top university in the state of Oklahoma in two categories. The rankings were released Monday, Sept. 18, as part of U.S. News and World Report's "2024 Best Colleges" rankings for colleges and universities. RSU ranked 10th on the list of "Top Public Schools – Regional Colleges of the West," the highest ranking for any college or university in the state of Oklahoma. The "West" region includes 15 states, ranging from Oklahoma and Texas, all the way to California and the west coast. Rogers State received another top rating in the state of Oklahoma, ranking 31st on the list for "Overall Rank – Regional Colleges of the West," again beating out all other institutions in the state. RSU received recognition in the 35th position for "Top Performers on Social Mobility–Regional Colleges of the West," the second highest ranking for any college or university in the state.

RSU and Saint Francis Health System Partner to Offer Bachelor of Science in Nursing in Tulsa. Saint Francis Health System and Rogers State University announced a partnership April 3 to educate nursing students at Saint Francis Hospital in Tulsa starting in August. The announcement was made Monday afternoon during a news conference held in the main lobby of Saint Francis Hospital at 61st and Yale. Saint Francis will serve as an extended campus of RSU, and Rogers State University will award the Bachelor of Science in Nursing upon students' graduation. The extended campus will open in fall 2023 for students who have been accepted into the Rogers State University nursing program. Applications for the spring 2024 semester began April 1.

Rogers State University Launches Chemical Engineering Degree for Fall 2023 Start. Rogers State University announced its new Bachelor of Science in chemical engineering program during a special event Dec. 15 on its Claremore campus. The BS in chemical engineering will be housed within RSU's College of Arts and Sciences in the Department of Mathematics and Physical Sciences. It is the first engineering degree offered at RSU. The first cohort of chemical engineering students begin classes in fall 2023 on the Claremore campus.

Allied Health Sciences Program Enrollment 'Explodes' at Rogers State University. Necessity, as the saying goes, is the mother of invention. Such is the case with Rogers State University's Bachelor of Science in allied health sciences degree program – a course of study developed when RSU faculty recognized the need for a program to address the demand for students interested in careers for which degrees didn't yet exist at RSU. Since its implementation, the allied health program has grown exponentially, with roughly 100 students currently enrolled in the program. Rogers State University offers concentrations to help tailor a student's educational journey to their specific career goals, also providing business classes as electives for allied health sciences majors who are interested in positions as medical or health service managers.

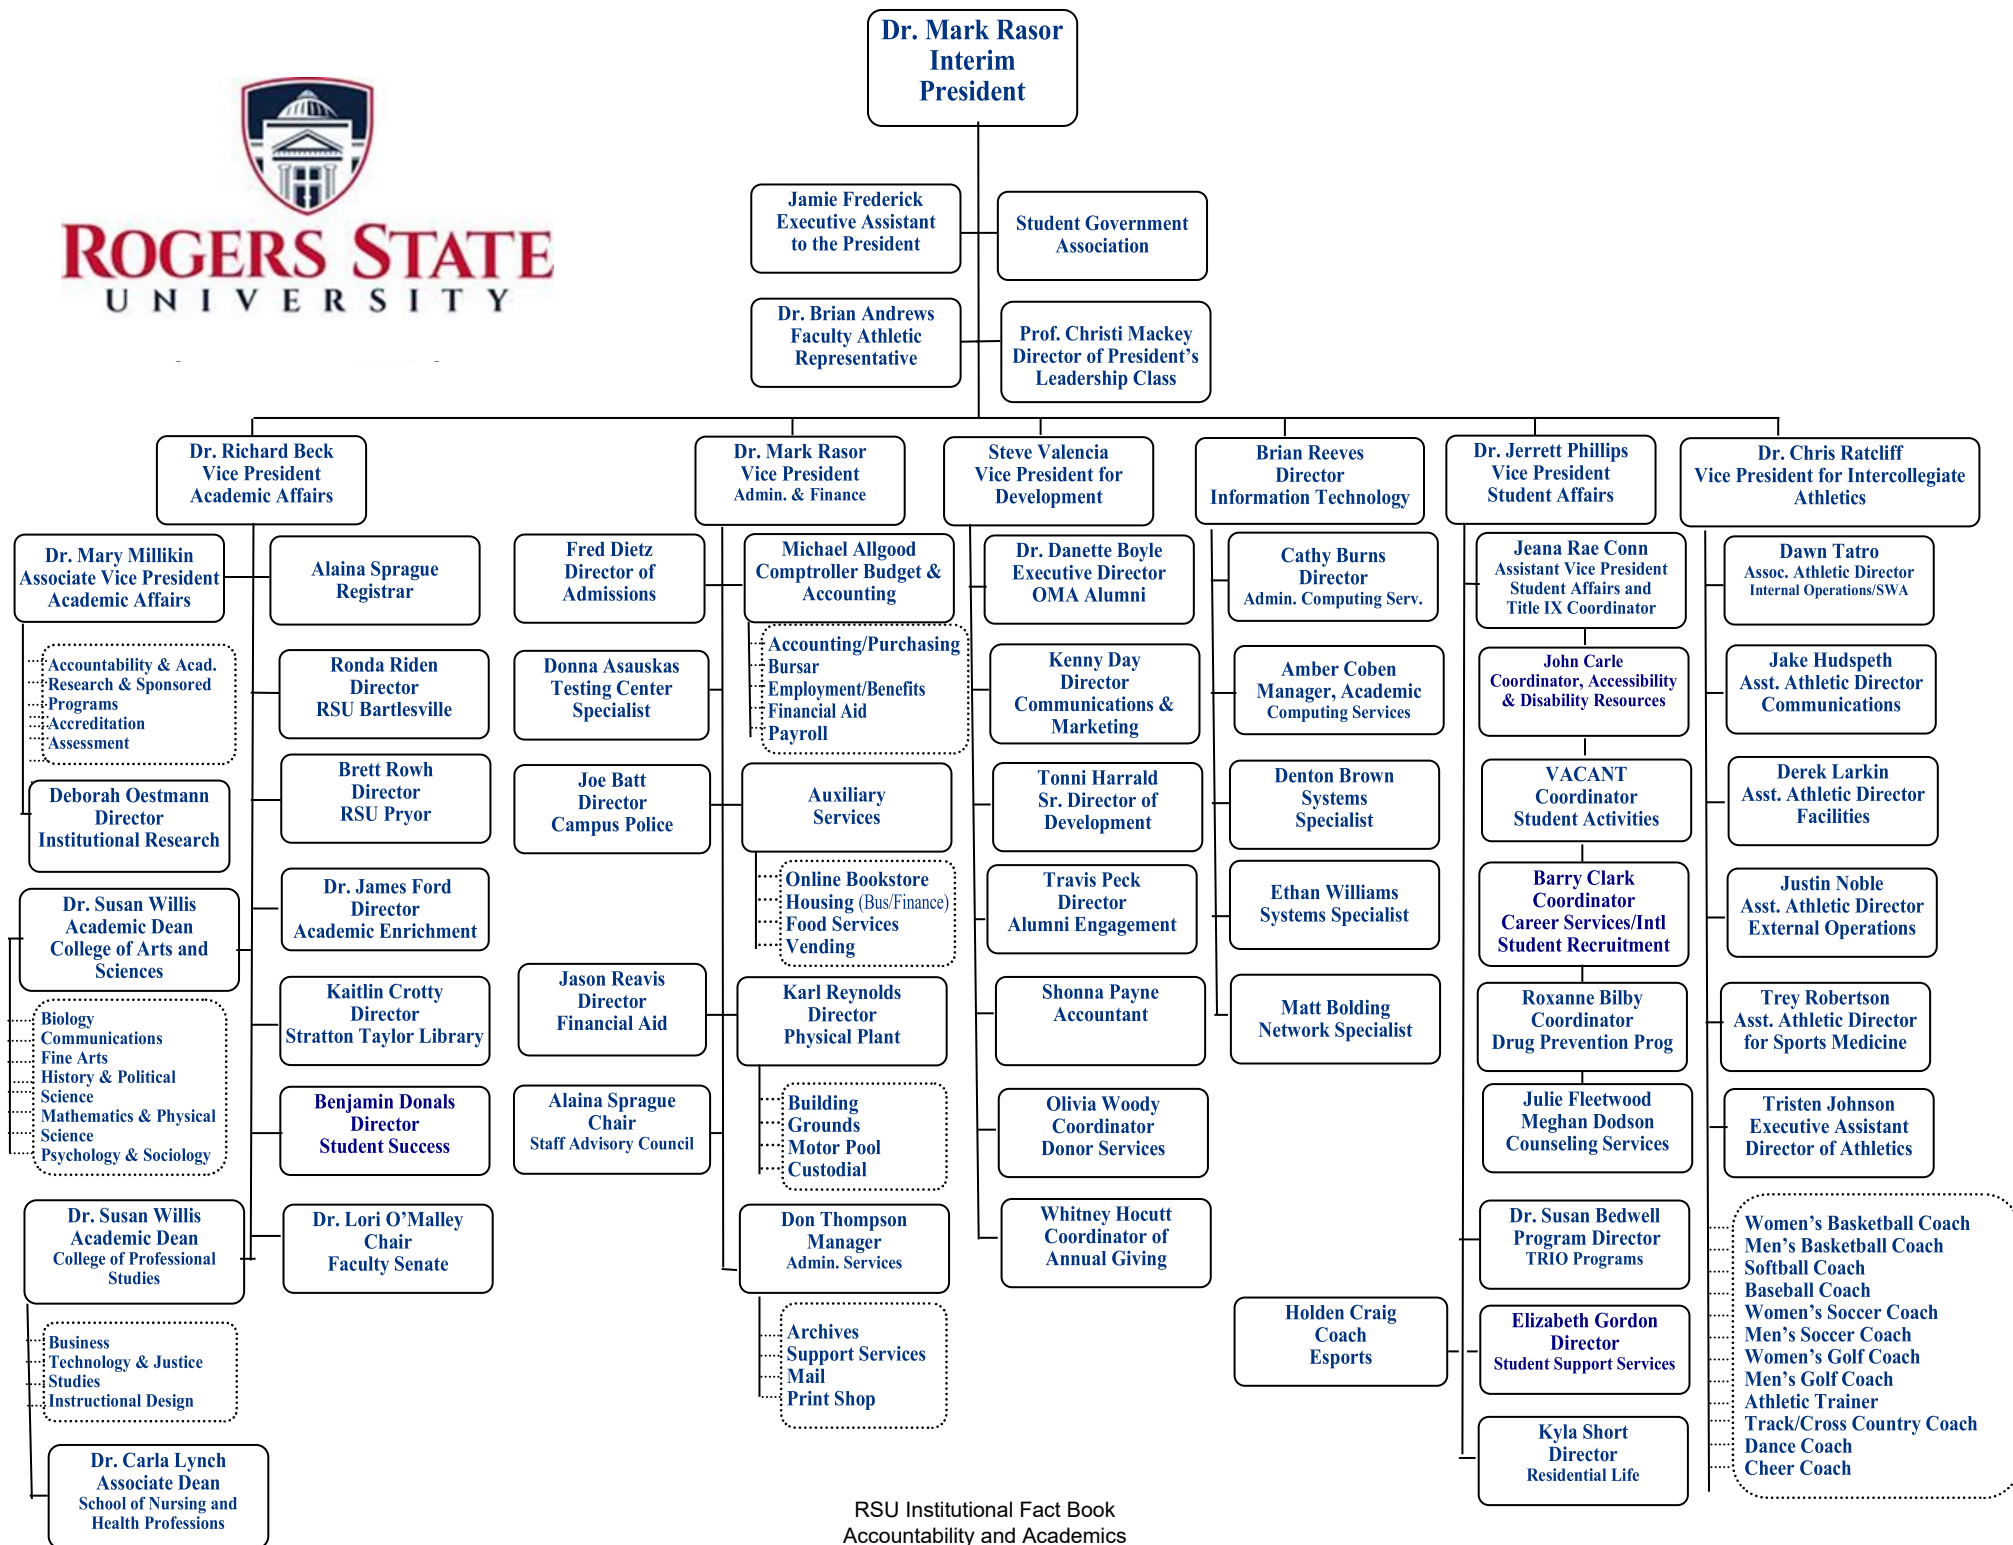

Giving Week Donation Funds RSU's First Robotics Team. Rogers State University having its own robotics team has long been a goal of Technology and Justice Studies Department Head and AeroCats Advisor Curtis Sparling. An anonymous Giving Week donation to RSU's AeroCats drone team has funded the development of the university's first robotics team. The robotics team, which will be called "The RoboClaws" in a nod to the "Fear the Claw" motto for the RSU Hillcats, will consist of RSU students My Le, Nghi Nyguen and Kai Nguyen, all three from Vietnam. The team has secured storage and built workstations, which have been filled with the necessary tools and equipment, and the purchase of a 12' x 12' competition stage (or field) has been approved. This will allow the team to both practice for and host competitions.

RSU Senior Interns at Tulsa Area Biotechnology Education and Research Consortium. Rogers State University senior Garrett Ringler spent the summer semester as an intern for the Tulsa Area Biotechnology Education and Research Consortium (TABERC). Ringler, a native of Skiatook, is a senior majoring in biology with a medical/molecular biology option. As an intern for TABERC, Ringler spent the summer conducting research focused on understanding how animals sense temperature changes. Much of Ringler's research was facilitated in the lab of RSU Department of Biology Associate Professor and Department Head Dr. Jin Seo.

RSU Ranked in Top Five Universities in Oklahoma. U.S. News & World Report has compiled a 2022-2023 ranking of universities in Oklahoma. Rogers State University ranked as the fifth best university in the entire state, behind only the two flagship schools, OU and OSU, as well as two private universities. RSU ranked higher than all other colleges and universities in the state, including all other regional universities. The Oklahoman featured this news in its July 17 edition. In an article citing U.S. News & World Report's 2022-23 rankings and titled "Report: These are the Top 10 Colleges and Universities in Oklahoma," RSU ranked fifth in the state, based on a combination of quality academics, campus size, affordability and accessibility.

RSU Named Recipient of $200,000 HEPS Grant to Combat Substance Abuse. Rogers State University has been named the recipient of a $200,000 Higher Education Prevention Services (HEPS) grant through the Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services. The grant is designed to provide education regarding drug abuse to RSU students, faculty and staff, and to address suicide awareness and education. The OKDMHSAS partners with universities across the state to facilitate funding for programs to educate and prevent prescription drug misuse. This grant will make possible the hiring of a part-time trained contractor to host educational programs, to conduct drug awareness workshops, and to help the university combat potential opioid and prescription stimulant abuse.

RSU Honors More Than 600 Graduates at 111th Commencement May 13. RSU conferred more than 600 degrees and certificates during its 111th commencement ceremonies May 13.
